Dear Senator Breaux:

I am writing to you on behalf of [REDACTED] [REDACTED] who I have known, along with his family, for over twenty-five years, and, to seek your support of him in regard to his request for a Presidential Pardon. His Petition for Pardon was mailed to the Office of the Pardon Attorney on December 12, 2000.

[REDACTED] and his brother were the owners and operators of [REDACTED] and highly regarded in our community. Unfortunately, due to [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] has completed his sentence and has filed the proper documents seeking a Presidential Pardon.

In support of his application, [REDACTED] has secured a Character Affidavit from [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] from [REDACTED] our [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and both an Affidavit as well as a personal letter of support from [REDACTED]

Copies of these are enclosed for your review.

Unquestionably [REDACTED] made a serious error in judgment in regard to his crime, however, he has paid the price society demands and would like to regain the dignity lost by both himself and his family as a result of his actions.

As you are aware, we are the Sportsmen state and [REDACTED] as well as his entire family, [REDACTED] are avid sportsmen. He would like to again be able to enjoy this pastime with his family as well as to be able to vote and participate in local politics.

I have never before endorsed a person in regard to a pardon, however, I can without hesitation state that [REDACTED] is no risk or threat to anyone, and is certainly deserving of this consideration.

I would appreciate any help that you might be able to give on behalf of this fine family man and ask if any further information would be of assistance, that you contact me personally.

Thanking you in advance for your support, I am,

Dear Senator Breaux:

This responds to your letter of January 11, 2001, forwarding correspondence from your constituent, Mr. [REDACTED] requesting executive clemency.

Under Section 1.2 of the "Rules Governing Petitions for Executive Clemency" (copy enclosed), a waiting period of at least five years after release from confinement (or conviction, if no confinement was served) is required before an individual becomes eligible to apply for a pardon. Mr. [REDACTED] was released from incarceration on [REDACTED] 1997, therefore he will not be eligible to apply for a presidential pardon until [REDACTED] 2002. If this matter is brought to the attention of this office after the eligibility requirements have been met, the necessary forms and instructions will be provided.

Thank you for your interest in this clemency matter.

Sincerely,

Dear Senator Breaux:

This is in response to your letter to the Attorney General of May 15, 2001, inquiring about the status of the pardon application filed by your constituent Luke Joseph Grezaffi.

Mr. Grezaffi's application remains under consideration. The processing time for a pardon application can be lengthy, and we can give no assurance that final action will be taken by the President within a particular time frame. Accordingly, we are unable to advise you when Mr. Grezaffi may expect a decision on his application. He will be notified promptly, however, when a final decision is made.

Thank you for your interest in clemency matters.

Washington, D.C.

00 DEC 11 PM 2:05

Dear Senator Breaux:

Can one of your senior constituents, that served in the military during World War II, seek your assistance in a matter of grave importance to me.

In 1993 I plead guilty to Perjury in federal court and was sentenced to six (6) months in federal prison plus three years supervised probation. All of this obligation was completed in September 1997. And now I can vote again in Louisiana. I applied to the U.S. Pardon Attorney in Washington, D.C. in November 1999, for a Presidential Pardon. Since this time I have had no response from the Pardon Attorney.

This Pardon can mean everything to me and would certainly be most grateful for any effort on your part to assist me in a rapid resolution to this matter. I have cooresponded with Bruce Lindsey in this matter and hopefully your interest in this matter could be most helpful.

As days in office are dwindling President Clinton is of course being hit on for many Pardons. Susan McDougle being one under consideration and I hope she is successful. Others seeking refuge committed far more serious crimes than my Perjury conviction.

Senator, I commend your strong stand to place prescription medicine into medicare coverage for seniors like myself that sometimes have to choose between medicine or food. However, I personally feel that a cap on the income level should be activated at somewhere around $30,000 level per year. This would permit the coverage to be broader and go to the needy not the greedy.

Please continue your strong stand on this delicate matter.

Although I am now able to vote again there are many other obstacles standing in my path that I would like to have restored. I am trying to obtain a state job, was a candidate for political office twice and an avid deer hunter, but can't get near a shotgun or rifle without a pardon.

Sincerely,
